

Ewa Balcerowicz has been co-founder and Vice-President of the Board of CASE - Center for Social and Economic Research from 1992 to 2004. Afterwards, she served as a President of the Board of CASE (2004-2008). Currently she holds the position of Chairwoman of the Supervisory Council. She graduated in 1977 from the Warsaw School of Economics (SGH), then called the Main School of Planning and Statistics (SGPiS), where she also received her PhD (1988). The major field of her research and publications include: SME sector, environment for development of the private sector, banking sector and insolvency systems, barriers of entry and exit in transforming economies of CEEC. She has participated in many international research projects: The Process of Enterprises' Exit in the Transition to a Market Economy: A Comparative Analysis (1994-1995), The Impact of Barriers to Entry on the Speed of Transition: A Comparative Study of Countries in Different Stages of Transition (1996-1998), Demand for Micro-Loans in Poland (2001), Changes in Industrial Competitiveness as a Factor of Integration: Identifying Challenges of the Enlarged Single European Market (2003-2006). Ewa Balcerowicz is author and co-author of numerous publications. She is a member of the Society of Polish Economists (TEP). She speaks fluent English and has a good command of Russian.